Local family wins $7,000 deck renovation
in national contest

Stephanie Carll and family of Kettering, Ohio, are a second prize winner of a $7,000 backyard transformation from Archadeck and TimberTech. The prize was part of the national “Dream Backyard Makeover” contest sponsored by the companies.

Carll and her family in their home outside of Dayton, which has a large backyard that is less than desirable for her toddler to play and the family to entertain. Launched in February, the Dream Backyard Makeover Contest enlisted homeowners across the country to submit a photo and 200-word description of why their backyard is the most deserving of the grand prize, which was a $70,000 backyard makeover. With more than 2,000 submissions, the Carll family’s was chosen as a second place winner. The grand prize winner was the Bentrott family in Huxley, Iowa.

Tim Stephens, owner of Archadeck of West Central Ohio, made the announcement to the Carlls at their home and will be handling the project.
